Dear Midwood Seniors,

Each year our schools are given the opportunity to contribute to the future by graduating their young men and women into the world. This contribution of well educated young people assures our society of continuity and provides it with its leaders. The immediate results of your years at Midwood can be readily seen by your graduation. But, the larger and more meaningful results are yet to be seen. What type of world will you provide for you future graduates??

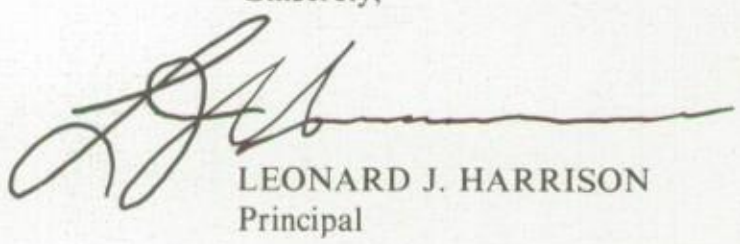
Now, upon your graduation, it is hoped that you can clearly see what we have tried to afford you. We have endeavored to give you models with which you might relate. We have attempted to expose you to that which is true and solid in our past. We have suggested through our teaching what might yet be. Our hope is that you weigh the proven and the true. Hold on to that which is meaningful and replace the outworn with that which grows gracefully and naturally from the evolution of man's progress.

We have never meant for you to merely revere the past or the present, but, to study it and understand it well, for the seeds of discovery can only be found here. To disregard the thousands of years of man's experience is to ignore the short-cut to the future. To disregard the dropping of weights from the Tower at Pisa or an apple from a tree is to never land on the moon. To miss the lessons of history is to fail to build for future peace.

I am sure that the graduating classes in future years will be exhorted to value the sum total of man's experience and not to frivolously discard it. But by that time, the experience will have grown. You will have added to it.

Build carefully and build well!!

Sincerely,



LEONARD J. HARRISON

It is our hope that through Arista we can make a small contribution to a better school and a better world.

1st ROW: Linda Granito, Robin Solomon, Heidi Shedlow, Amy Sirof. 2nd ROW: Carole Singer, Alan Hodara, Liz Rothman.

Patterns is the literary magazine of Midwood High School (Bedford Ave. and Glenwood Rd.). Our little group meets five days a week (if we make it past the security guard) in a little room at the top of the stairs in Siberia (formerly inhabited by Rapunzel). If we're not celebrating Heidi's birthday or eating Mrs. Sosnow's banana bread, we occasionally read the short stories and poems that we receive.

Road Ahead

Road Ahead is the magazine sponsored by the Social Studies Department, and written and edited by the students of Midwood High School. Controversy is the name of the game, and Road Ahead has consistently attempted to stimulate its readers with carefully researched and well written essays on the most widely-debated contemporary issues and historical problems. This approach has made Road Ahead uniquely useful for social studies classes and their teachers. The Spring 1973 issue will deal with the constitutional liberties of free speech, press, religion and assembly, as well as the rights of the accused.

The Saga of Argus

A tragedy was taking place inside room 304,
Where Argus students shook their heads and moaned, "No more, No more".
The crisis now was not the money that they took away,
But lack of inspiration — there was no more to say!
"Impossible!" declared Miz Arkin, leader of the pack.
"There's always news to write about, you musn't be so slack."
With that she turned and grinned at them, and walked out to the hall.
What was to become of them? — there was no news at all.

The days and weeks passed quickly as the students wracked their brains,
But not a word was written, in spite of all their pains.

There was just one day left before the Argus went to press;
Finally, the thoughts exploded under all the stress.
News staff, sports staff, feature staff, and editors alike
Prepared the Argus all day long despite the uphill hike.
When the monthly issue was completed the next night,
The Argus once more settled down to fight its newsless plight.

Being associated with the gymnastics team for the past few years has been a fantastic experience for us. Gymnastics is a sport which requires much dedication as well as individualism. Gymnastics has the capability of molding one's character and developing emotions, such as respect, appreciation, and accomplishment through hours of practice. To succeed in gymnastics, it must become a way of life.

In looking back, we can only say thanks to the people who took pride in us and showed concern. One man stands above all, for he is a man who aims only at the highest goals and is more like a father than a coach. To former Coach D.M. Tohn, all the past, present, and future gymnasts of Midwood say thanks for paving the way.

Bicycle Club

The Midwood Bicycle Club has been in existence for three years now. It has been, beyond any doubt, one of the most popular clubs in the school. But that really isn't the most important thing about the club. The things that are really important, are all the incidents and activities that took place on our trips; Lenny Rabinow's house after the first midnight bike ride, Bike Train, Montaulk, Laurie Clark's house and pancakes in that rained out trip last year, Central Park, Neponsit, Clove Lake — those who were on the trips will remember them.

Bicycling is more than just pedaling over pot-holed streets. It is also the people you meet and the things you do after you get where you want to go. After the trip is over it's the good feeling you have when you finally get home and get a chance to relax. Unfortunately, many people feel that the Midwood Bicycle Club exists only for those with 10 speed bikes. Nothing can be farther from the truth. Bicycling is for anyone who has a desire to have a good time whether he owns a $400 professional 10 speed or a XX truck one speed. We only hope that the Midwood Bicycle Club will continue to provide the opportunity for students to share the joys of cycling.

Frobish Team

Our beloved Frobish team, originated last year by the late Vector Troll, was unfortunately not as successful this year, since many of the school's Fine Freebates (Frobishers) graduated, leaving only veteran superstars, (LEFT TO RIGHT): Fillard Millmore, Rush Gordon, David Buoy (Clank), Marx Boland (of T-rec) AND THE ROOKIES: Phil Tishman, and all American swastika champ, Mick (da) Mouse. When asked about their record of 1 win, 1 tie (bow) and 6.02X1023 losses, Coach Jock Mudslinger eloquently grunted, "... duh ... are you really going to print this?"

Willowbrook

" . . . but most important, we give them the love and attention they so desperately need."

What kind of love and attention?

Over 200 volunteers trucking out to Willowbrook by bus, van, and other assorted vehicles. Over 5 hours every weekend spent at the Staten Island school that resembles a rural college campus . . . from without. The overpowering odor of various excretory substances . . . from within.

And hundreds of mentally retarded patients with outstretched arms, pleading to be taken home. The questions: "Is she your wife?", when you're only 16; "Be back in two weeks?", when you've just arrived. The simple, begging, searching looks of a retarded child. The dreams of taking them away from that awful place. That's what makes it all worthwhile. That's the Willowbrook Volunteer Troupe.

And then someone suggested, "Let's have a carnival!" and so we did, with clowns and rides, cotton candy and prizes, students and patients, newsmen and celebrities. With "Dart the Balloon" and "Dunk the Teacher." With half the school coming out to help, have some fun, and keep the money rolling in.

Second only to Sing, the Willowbrook Volunteer and Midwood-Willowbrook Carnival are fast gaining ground. And this is only our first year.

Neither rain, nor cold, nor mud, nor pulled muscles, nor sore throats, nor gloom of defeat, stayed the Cheerleaders from their splits and cartwheels. And now we must pass down our uniforms, hang up our shakers, and wash our socks.

Thank you Hornets and Cagers for many exciting, happy, and victorious moments. We know you've got the spirit.

Twirlers

Our faces gleaming with the combination of Yardley and Clearasil, we screamed our hearts out for the boys. We endured many hardships; dropping the baton, the fear of freezing to death, and those last minute losses. Now, as we pass the baton to new friends, they too shall endure. They will find it all worthwhile as we did; for it was our spirit and love which made facing defeat easier and making our victory a prouder one.

The Hornets and Cagers have the one asset which separates them from the rest . . . The Midwood Twirlers.

Midwood High School has made history. We are the first school to give an experimental program in archery. Due to Midwood's safe archery clubs, three other schools in the city have added archery to their program.

Softball Team

Mimeo Squad

The Mimeo Squad is a hard working team of our school turning out the printed material that is needed by every teacher and student.

Field Squad

Staffed by some of the most talented and highly skilled people in Midwood, the Photo Squad is the most overworked and underrated groups in the school, although it is the most essential to Midwood's publications. They are frequently seen around school clicking their cameras and themselves into a state of depravity; but all they receive in return is a fight from an editor.

Band

Band has been a great class, due to the pleasure derived from the company of our magnificent conductor, Jerome D. Goldstein. His philosophy, "Better to be quiet and be thought a fool, than to open your mouth and remove all doubt," mixed with gentle kindness, "Hey, fat ass, shut up!" made the band an enjoyable and exciting place to be.

The Midwood band is known for its excellent performances throughout the city, drawn from its challenging repertoire.

Marching Band

Midwood marching band combines precision marching with musical virtuosity. Their interpretations of such favorites as "Sons of the Blue and White" and "Mickey Mouse" reveal the subtle insights of these compositions. In reply to complaints that the band quits playing after halftime, a member intelligently remarked, "We quit when the team does." The band, although it has been criticized for its crude behavior, is none-the-less an integral part of the football season.

Orchestra

1st ROW: Henry Arenson, David August, Kirk Gellin, Ari Hoogenboom, Eugene Rothman, Tim Sprague, Henry Sobo, Samuel Dower, Tom Yulsman. 2nd ROW: Leonard Harris, Claudia Saslow, Judy Steinberg, Robin Levine, Lori Jacobson, Alan Hodara, Ivan Rothman, Malcolm Ruhl, Stewart Pine, Ann Trail, Beth Richter, Priscilla Leidig.

"An experience like orchestra can't be put into words . . . only music."

Girls' Chorus

Girls Chorus means a happy, smiling face on all those who have the pleasure of being a member. Our words and feelings are conveyed to everyone through our music.

Boys' Chorus

All of our fond memories will be bound in treasured chorus. Nevermore shall a single rest or eighth note of harmony, counterpoint, or just plain fun and laughter come from the multitudes of us musical geniuses. This is the eulogy of the Midwood male chorus.

Mixed Chorus

The sound of a hundred voices blending together in harmony . . . seniors, juniors, and sophomores working as one . . . a feeling of belonging . . . making long-lasting friendships . . . three years of rewarding experience as an accompanist . . . the thrill of being elected president . . . and the headache of serving . . . the excitement of performing . . . the Mozart Requiem at the Brooklyn Academy . . . Mrs. Tillis inspiring direction . . . the parties afterwards . . . caroling at Christmastimes . . . the boat ride to Bear Mountain every June . . . a successful changeover to a new conductor . . . and Mr. Sorensen's persistent strivings for perfection.

These are some of the memories we associate with the Midwood Choral Society. Soon chorus itself will be only a memory. But it is one that we will retain intact throughout the years to come . . . the highlight of our Midwood experience.

For all the chorus graduates,
Victor

College Bound

The College Bound Program is extremely unique. Through smaller classes, the students can achieve more scholastically. There are many activities offered by the program, one of which is the tutorial program. We have found it to be truly beneficial.

Math Team

Quanta

Chess Team

Debating Team

A few members of the Midwood Forensic Society have some weird idiocyncracies which Lance, our faithful and humble servant, will overlook and, in the past has overlooked.

First of all, our lead debater has often gone mute in the most climactic part of his rebuttal speech. Secondly, our most talented dramatic interpretation participant has often found herself in the position of tightening the noose around her neck before divulging the name of her school. But through it all, Lance has had the astonishing ability to overlook all of these obstacles. Well, come to think of it, when you're 6'3", it really isn't that hard . . .

Student-Faculty Show

The Student-Faculty show is a new edition to the activities of Midwood. A group of very eager students (and not always very eager teachers) got together and put on a show. From its conception, to its writing and casting, directing and painting of scenery, the entire group worked together. Jokes were tried and discarded, teachers were greatly commended for their nerve, and finally the show went on. It was greatly received. We hope that it will become a tradition forever, or as long as there are teachers and students who are willing to make fools of themselves.

SING

. . . and the winning Sing of '73 is "The Greatest Show on Earth," the Seniors!!

Pandemonium broke out. We were screaming, crying, hugging and kissing everyone in sight. We jumped so much, one would think the stage would collapse. But it didn't. To everyone involved, this was our Sing Victory!

New York City is the only place I know that has the trials and tribulations of Sing. I guess we are just lucky! Along with Sing comes parents, wondering for three months where their children are . . . and you saying you were in school but you were really missing classes and painting scenery . . . and the money you spent on chocolate bars so you wouldn't faint and fall off the risers . . . and ALL the phone calls home to say, "Mom, I won't be home until late tonight. Yes, Mom, AGAIN."

I can remember back to when we were Freshman over at the Annex. The Mets had won the World Series that year and our commissioner kept saying "If the Mets could do it, so could we." Even though we didn't come in first, we broke the spell with magic — the magic of love, and Freshman came in third, not the usual fourth.

. . . and people said, "Wait until next year. That class will really be terrific. There we were with all the talent and spirit any class could possibly have. Imagine getting one hundred and fifty sailors off and back on stage, playing one hundred and fifty kazoos singing "hi ho, hi ho, it's off the ship we go . . . "! Remember the $64.00 question, "Is Noah gay?" The Spirit of S.S. Noah was there, and it brought us second place. We felt good anyway, and knew that the next year, the year of our VICTORY, was not far off.

Okay. So there we were with a third place and a second place . . . only one direction in which to go. Up. Right? . . . wrong! As I look back I can remember a nut doing monkey imitations on the second floor balcony of Midwood . . . a whole lot of potato jokes (uh huh), sexy smiles, a horse named Rowena's mistake and the infamous "oh really? No, oh Reilly, Cheese O'Reilly . . . and alot of confidence in our winning. Even though we had Mike Colorito blackmailed with a certain picture of an opium pipe, in HIS mouth, we didn't win. All the endless nights of rehearsing and working were over and there we were: Juniors with third place. As a kind of consolation prize we took two best songs. However, then we realized we had only one more year, and we were going to come back better than ever!

Senior Sing had come and we said maybe we could do it. And all three nights you heard us singing in the halls, "We are sure we can do it!" and we did. All the ideas of circus clowns, kids, and being what you should be in life worked. It turned out to be the Greatest Show on Earth.

I guess we are all nostalgic. Each of us has our special thoughts of Sing. The friends . . . the victory parties (even when there was no victory) . . . everyone's home away from home — Siberia east and west . . . and a chorus leader who, for four years, would not give up. Now that it has all ended, all we have left are the memories. Let's cherish them. They were some of the best we ever had.

Loans for Learning

If you need a low-cost student loan for college, trade or nursing school, preparatory school or graduate studies, see the Lincoln first.

PLAN A: If you have been accepted for enrollment in a degree granting, accredited school, then regardless of income, Lincoln can provide up to $7,500.00 for your education—up to $1,500.00 a year for full time students and $750.00 a year for part time students. Larger amounts may be available for students attending graduate schools. Loans are also available for students attending vocational schools. Under the New York Higher Education Assistance Corporation program no principal payments are required until after studies are completed or the student withdraws from school. Then, depending on the amount borrowed, you may have up to ten years to repay.

PLAN B: For families with net taxable incomes over $15,000. Lincoln will lend up to $20,000 with up to seven years to repay. On loans of as much as $5,000 for a single school year. Life Insurance is provided free.
